Dear Pearl:

Enclosed is the letter to be used for enclosure with our dues statement.

I have seen the announcement of the Law Teachers Convention at Asheville. I note that their program would be of little interest to us and nothing is said about a joint meeting ~~and~~ ^{with} our Chapter with them. Further, inquiries that I have made cause me to believe that, while a joint meeting was mentioned at their Dauphine Island meeting, it was never considered a serious suggestion by their group.

I have said nothing about this in my letter, nor do I want anything about it in it, for I think to do so would place more emphasis on the suggestion that it deserves. If I recall correctly, both Mary Polk Green and Betty Taylor indicated their willingness to host our next regular meeting. It is my belief we should see if Mary and Betty are still interested. We should then, while we are in New York, decide where our meeting is to be held. The local arrangements committee could be appointed at that time.

Yours very truly,

U. V. Jones

SOUTHEASTERN CHAPTER
AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF LAW LIBRARIES

Dear Member:

You are invited to attend the next meeting of our Chapter, which will be a breakfast meeting to be held at the Hotel Commodore, New York, on Wednesday, June 30, 1965, at 8 a.m. Breakfast is available at a cost of $3.00 plus .63 tax and gratuity or a total of $3.63. There is one menu only.

We plan to enjoy the good fellowship of old friends and see new ones as we have done at our previous chapter meetings at the national convention. Business will be discussed, including place, date, etc., of our next regular annual chapter meeting.

I have been asked to advise the hotel of how many we expect at the breakfast meeting so that an appropriate room may be assigned. So please fill out the form at the bottom of this page and return to me by June 15th.

A statement that Southeastern Chapter dues are now payable is enclosed.

Yours very truly,

U. V. Jones
